We may, from time to time include State Pension details along with your SHPS benefit details. In order that we can send you a pension forecast that includes information about your State Pension, we need to get some information about you from the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP). To get that information we need to disclose your personal details to the DWP.

The information we get from the DWP will be used only for the purposes of providing you with a forecast of your pension rights.

If you do not wish us to contact the DWP for this information, please tick this box ☐.

As a result of this, the pension forecast you receive from us will not include State Pension information.

For further information, please refer to our website www.tpt.org.uk.

Notes on the completion of sections 3 and 4

You may change your nomination at any time. Please obtain a further form from TPT if you wish to do so.

1. Lump sum death benefit

- (a) You may nominate any one or more persons or organisations to receive this benefit. You must use the name of a person or organisation and not your 'Estate' or the title 'Executor' or 'Administrator'.
- (b) Any nomination will be revoked automatically by the death of the person(s) nominated or by your later marriage, civil partnership, divorce or dissolution of a civil partnership. If you wish your original nomination to stand you must confirm this in writing to TPT.
- (c) The SHPS Pensions Committee has discretion over who is to receive the benefit and, in exceptional circumstances, where no information is available, reserves the right to retain all or part of the value of the benefit within the assets of the Scheme.

2. Survivor's pension

- (a) Please provide us with the name of your nominated survivor. This pension may be shared in the circumstances described in the following paragraph.
- (b) As a consequence of being contracted-out of the State Second Pension, part of your pension must be paid to a legal spouse or civil partner.
- (c) Any nomination will be revoked automatically by the death of the person nominated, or by your later marriage, civil partnership, divorce or dissolution of a civil partnership. If you wish your original nomination to stand (where permissible) you must confirm this in writing to TPT.
- (d) As the choice of beneficiary has widened to the maximum permitted extent, it is important for you to exercise your right to nominate wherever possible. Eligibility will be confirmed before payment commences.

- (e) If on your death there is no valid nomination, the SHPS Pensions Committee has discretion to pay the benefits to any eligible beneficiary but has the right to retain all or part of the benefit within the Scheme.
- (f) If on retirement you have no nominee and do not wish to name one, then you may either retain the right to do so, or give up part of the survivor's pension and receive an enhanced pension yourself. Details of the enhanced pension option will be provided at retirement.

3. Who can receive the survivor's pension?

- (a) Your spouse or civil partner.
- (b) Anyone who lives with you and shares the living expenses or anyone who is largely financially dependent on you. However, a child may only be nominated as detailed below.
- (c) You may nominate a child (of any age) who is disabled and is unable to earn a living (in this case the child would be paid the survivor's pension, but not the child's pension).
- (d) You may nominate a dependent child to receive the survivor's pension only up to the date he or she ceases to be treated as a 'Child' as described in the Trust Deed and Rules. No other child's pension can be paid at the same time.
